About Brink Pitch Prep

Brink Pitch Prep for SDAC 2027 helps entrepreneurs strengthen their pitches, refine their business strategies and prepare to compete in the San Diego Angel Conference (SDAC), hosted by San Diego State University (SDSU). The 2027 conference aims to train and activate early-stage accredited investors while connecting promising startups with potential funding opportunities. Through Brink Pitch Prep, founders will gain valuable insights and guidance to position themselves for success as they prepare for the 2027 competition
